GENERAL NOTICES

MEMBERS OF THE SEMINARY COMMUNITY

Since September, the Seminary has had a security patrol on a 24-hour basis. This program was instituted because of the change in the way of life in Princeton. For many, many years, Princeton was a town in which you did not need to lock doors and one could feel safe walking the sidewalks at any time of day or night. In the past few years, we have had more and more incidents in town, and in the last year several were very close to the Seminary. In order to attempt to prevent incidents on campus, rather than wait until they had taken place, the Seminary felt it appropriate to enter into a security program.

Now that we have had a semester to review the operation, we would like to make certain changes. In view of the fact that the security program was established for the protection of, and to provide service to, the members of the Seminary community, we feel that all members should have access to the security officer on duty. Therefore, if you have need of the security officer to:

1. report suspicious actions,
2. report a fire or other emergency, or
3. request a security officer to accompany you to or from a parking area or building late at night,

Call: 1-800-402-7668, listen for the dial tone, then dial your phone number (up to 8 digits).

Remain by your phone, and the officer will return your call from a phone in the security vehicle. I would like to emphasize that in a situation where there is a fire or where a crime is being committed, first call the Princeton Borough Police at 924-4141.

I would also like to encourage all those who operate vehicles on campus to be familiar with the regulations in the Handbook and with the material given to you at the time you received your parking sticker.

The Seminary has made a very real effort to accommodate the cars that must be on campus, and the procedures will only work if individuals park only in the areas assigned. Although there have been some situations where this has been a hardship on a few people, overall, the parking on campus has been much better this year than in past years.

Many thanks for your understanding and cooperation

He has also taught homiletics in the Divinity School. Among his publications are "The Second American Revolution: Religion in an Age of Scarcity," "Martin Luther King, Jr.: A Retrospective," and "Darlings of Heaven: The Pilgrims and Their Myths." The grants cover tuition and living expenses during the term of the course but not transportation. PETITION FOR DIVESTMENT

Signatures are being collected for a petition to the investment sub-committee of the Board of Trustees concerning divestment and South Africa. All members of the Seminary community are invited to sign. If you wish to do so, and a petition has not found its way to you, contact Rebecca Brenner as soon as possible (924-2583, 418 Brown Hall).

SEMINARY PROCEDURES

As we approach the winter months, I would like to emphasize the snow policy printed on page 53 of the 1985-86 Handbook. Of particular note is the fact that during the periods when snow is predicted, no vehicles should be parked on any campus roadway overnight. It is the responsibility of the owner of a vehicle to be alert to storm warnings and to remove the vehicle to the appropriate parking area before severe weather conditions exist. This regulation is necessary because it is not possible for the maintenance crews to clear the roadways if vehicles are parked along them.

I would also like to call your attention to the fact that, as described on page 55, section 6, student parking on campus roadways is permitted only between 6:00 p.m. and midnight on weekdays, and 6:00 a.m. to midnight on Saturdays and Sundays.

Recently, vehicles have been noted parked on the northwest side of the roadway in front of Alexander Hall. This is a "No Parking" area and it is extremely dangerous for vehicles to be parked there because cars coming from the north side of Alexander Hall could very easily crash into any vehicle parked in that path of the roadway.

A graduate of Oberlin College Conservatory of Music where he studied with Haskell Thomson, Mitnaul is currently director of music at St. James Episcopal Church in Painesville, Ohio.

THEATER

Thursday, March 6, Friday, March 7, Saturday, March 8, Auditorium, 8:00 p.m. Misalliance by George Bernard Shaw. Misalliance could well have been named "Misalliances." Shaw wrote the play in 1910 and it is as timely today as it was then in its concerns with the misalliances of daily life, such as occur between fathers and sons and between couples who are engaged for all the wrong reasons.

Shaw's wit and searing insights into human foibles are never better. There are, of course, the totally unexpected and bizarre occurrences resulting from misinformation: a father proposing to his son's girl, men chasing a Polish aviatrix who literally falls out of the sky, and her unlikely choice of the runt of the lot who is both fascinated and terrified by her intentions for him.

The production will be produced by Dr. W.J. Beeners and directed by Karl Light.

OFF-CAMPUS EVENTS

MALANKARA SYRIAN LITURGY

Sunday, March 2, Blessed Sacrament Church, Trenton, 4:00 p.m.
The Malankara Syrian Liturgy, according to the rite of Antioch, is one of the most ancient church liturgies. Also known as the Liturgy of St. James, it is none other than the original rite of Jerusalem as it was celebrated by James, the brother of the Lord, in the church at Jerusalem. Although the original liturgy was in Aramaic, the language spoken by Jesus and the Apostles, the liturgy is now Malayalam, the language of Kerula in India (complemented by a running English commentary).

The Reverend C. M. George will serve as celebrant at the service. Father George is a priest in the Malankara Syrian Catholic Church in the Archdiocese of Trivandrum, Kerala, India. He is a former principal of St. Jude's College, Thoothoor, and is presently a candidate for the Th.M. degree.

The Blessed Sacrament Church is located at 716 Belleview Avenue, Trenton, New Jersey. Further information on the service is available from Father George (683-5439).

WORLD DAY OF PRAYER

Sponsored by the Princeton Church Women United, a non-denominational and ecumenical group, the annual day set aside as "World Day of Prayer" will be held on Friday, March 7, 12:00 noon, at the First Baptist Church, John Street, Princeton.

Each year a different ethnic group elects to write the service. The theme for this year is "Choose Life," written by a group of Australian women. The speaker will be Anita Bash, coordinator for the peace group. Her topic: "Beyond War," suggests we seek a dialogue in thinking about peace efforts.

The Princeton Women United invite you to be part of "World Day of Prayer" and join the fellowship following the noon service. Those attending should bring a sandwich. Park is available along the street side of the Baptist church.

Quoting from Dorothee Soelle, well-known poet, theologian, and activist, Plowshare and C.C.M.G. introduce Hulsether as "a political-cultural worker, whose music and lyrics feed us, strengthen the struggle, and keep our eyes open for the victims and the victimizer." Mark Hulsether earned an M.Div. from Yale Divinity School. Besides his performances he works with Minnesota Clergy and Laity Concerned to structure activities with supporters of peace-related issues.

CONFERENCE ON CLERGY TAXES AND CHURCH FINANCE

Wednesday, March 5, Stuart Hall, room 5, 7:30 - 10:00 p.m.
To help seniors understand the complex areas of income tax for clergypersons and church finance (balance sheets/monthly financial statements) a conference will be held again this year by the Senior Placement Office.

Though designed for members of the Class of 1986, the Seminary community is invited to attend. William Sasso, Esq., senior tax partner, Stradley, Ronon, Stevens & Young, Philadelphia, will discuss clergy taxes and respond to questions. Beeners and director Karl Light, the cast of Seminary students will lead us through a plot of bizarre occurrences. A father proposes to his son's girl. A group of men pursue a Polish aviatrix who literally falls out of the sky. All resulting from misinformation! Shaw's wit and insight into the frailty of character is as timely today as when the play was written in 1910.

CAMPUS GUESTS

Friday, March 28, Miller Chapel, 11:00 a.m.

The Seminary will host the Kantus (choir) of the Reformed College of Debrecen, Hungary, in a presentation of sacred classical and contemporary music. Initially formed in the mid-1700s as a four-member funeral quartet, the Hungarian choir now comprises 140 voices. The Reformed College of Debrecen has been an institution for almost 400 years and encompasses a Theological Academy and a training center for organists and deacons, and is the only Reformed secondary school existing in Eastern Europe. Kantus also serves as the choir for the Great Church, also in Debrecen (formerly the Church of St. Andrew), which dates back to the 14th century. Currently on tour throughout the United States and Canada, the Kantus will sing the music of Schutz, Purcell, Scarlatti, Berthier, Liszt, Bardos, and Kodaly, among others.

PASCHAL VIGIL

Saturday, March 29, Miller Chapel, 7:00 p.m.

The 13th annual re-enactment of the four-hour vigil celebrating Easter will take place on the Seminary campus.

It takes direction from Augustine's preaching: "on the day made glorious by the Resurrection of Jesus Christ and the day made doleful by his death, let us recall both days in solemn memorial, keeping vigil in recollection of his death and rejoicing in celebration of his Resurrection."

The Seminary community and visitors will gather at Miller Chapel and proceed to various campus stations for readings and meditation. The 1986 Vigil theme is "Let Us Draw Near," referring to the fourth chapter of the book of Hebrews. Central to the service of worship are preaching and the celebration of the church's sacraments--baptism and the Lord's Supper. Symbolizing the worldwide unity of the church, the Gospel of John will be read in as many languages as are represented in the evening's congregation. Following the service will be the customary breaking of the Lenten fast. Those attending are requested to bring food and beverage contributions to the Mackay Center prior to the start of the vigil.

Sponsored by the Princeton Church Women United, a non-denominational and ecumenical group, the annual day set aside as "World Day of Prayer" will be held on Friday, March 7, 12:00 noon, at the First Baptist Church, John Street, Princeton.

Each year a different ethnic group elects to write the service. The theme for this year is "Choose Life," written by a group of Australian women. The speaker will be Anita Bash, coordinator for the peace group. Her topic: "Beyond War," suggests we seek a dialogue in thinking about peace efforts.

The Princeton Church Women United invite you to be part of "World Day of Prayer" and join the fellowship following the noon service. Those attending should bring a sandwich. Parking is available along the street side of the Baptist church.

Monday, March 24 - Thursday, March 27, Main Lounge
Dr. Letty Russell will deliver the 1986 Warfield Lectures. The general lecture theme, "Authority in the Future of Feminist Theology," focuses on the question of authority within a patriarchal society. Believing "everything feminists touch in a patriarchal society turns into a question of authority," and that feminist theologies are part of a shift within Christian theology, she will explore changing language about and images of God and outline ways to view authority not as domination but in relation to partnership.

A world leader in the ecumenical movement, Russell's written works have been translated into seven languages. They include: Human Liberation in a Feminist Perspective-A Theology; The Future of Partnership; Growth in Partnership; and Becoming Human. She is presently professor of practical theology at Yale University Divinity School.

The college contains the only Reformed Secondary School in Eastern Europe and has been in operation without interruption for almost 450 years.

"LET US DRAW NEAR"

Saturday, March 29, Miller Chapel, 7:00 p.m.

The Paschal Vigil will begin at 7:00 p.m. Miller Chapel will be dark throughout the "Watch of Mourning and Hope" until the Service of Light, recalling the Light of the World who drew near.

Hebrews 4:16

This year's vigil takes direction from Augustine's preaching: "on the day made glorious by the Resurrection of Jesus Christ and the day made doleful by his death, let us recall both days in solemn memorial, keeping vigil in recollection of his death and rejoicing in celebration of his Resurrection."

Beginning at Miller Chapel, the Seminary community and visitors will proceed to campus stations for readings and meditation. Central to the service of worship are preaching and the celebration of the church's sacraments--baptism and the Lord's Supper. Symbolizing the worldwide unity of the church, the Gospel of John will be read in as many languages as are represented in the evening's congregation. Following the service will be the customary breaking of the Lenten fast. The following food contributions are suggested for the breaking of the fast: honey, yogurt, crackers, cheese, nut breads, cold meats, fruit, juices and wines.

Please note: While the vigil is in process, it is necessary to not have cars parked in the area to be used for worship surrounding the quadrangle. Cars not removed by 4:30, Friday, March 28, will be ticketed. Your cooperation is very much appreciated.

Although numbers were down a bit from last spring, we did have a successful drive with 80 pints contributed. Your willingness to donate will help many with medical emergencies.

There is always a need...others who would like to contribute but were unable to schedule a donation can donate at the Princeton Medical Center. Please call Carol Troy at the Princeton Red Cross for an appointment, 924-2404, and request that the contribution be credited to the Seminary.

JUSTICE BY THE POUND

Monday, April 21, Tuesday, April 22, Wednesday, April 23, Mackay Campus Center Foyer.
Orders for Nicaraguan coffee will be taken during the lunch periods on each of the three days listed above. The coffee, purchased from the Jubilee Community, a non-profit organization in Philadelphia, will be sold in vacuum-packed bricks and can be used in all types of coffee machines. All proceeds will be channeled to the Nicaraguan farm communities.

Regular coffee: $3.25 - (9 oz. brick)
Decaffeinated (by the water process): $3.75.

To encourage your support in the struggle of the Nicaraguan people, Plowshare would like to share the following information.

The real losers in the Nicaraguan war have been the farms and farm workers. Out in the fields, workers have been made easy victims for those who wish to disrupt coffee harvests. Farm workers have been kidnapped, tortured and killed by the contras. Further, the U.S. trade embargo against Nicaraguan products has produced economic hardship for farmers. However, strides are being made. Since the revolution in 1979, the workday has been cut from 12 to 8 hours, workers are allowed to form unions and are guaranteed meals and pay. More than 12,000 landless families have been given land to farm.
